

The ease INTO Summer programme offers a range of exciting, fun and enriching activities to children during the school holidays, created to help them be healthy and active while off school. Activities on offer include free swimming, sports camps, theatre, surfing, gym memberships, forest schools and more. All activities include a free meal as part of the day.

Activities are free for children who receive income-related free school meals, but other children can also attend where paid for places are available.

To find out more and register online, click here